

JOLENE THYM: PICKY EATER

Contra Costa Times

Article Launched: 07/11/2007 03:23:27 AM PDT

CHOCOLATE HEAVEN: Drive directly to the city of Emeryville and park on Hollis Street near the big sign that says Charles Chocolates Factory. Enter. Breathe. Enjoy, and spend as long as you want perusing the array of ridiculously delicious chocolate possibilities. These are seriously the most ethereal chocolates you will ever encounter. They come in every flavor of your dreams, and look just as pretty. You will likely get offered a sample or two. Don't turn these down. While you make your selections, you can enjoy a little hot chocolate in the cafe, or watch chocolate makers at work in the new factory. Beware: These chocolates are not only highly addictive, but they're also pricey. Bring lots of cash. The cafe and factory are open from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily. 6529 Hollis St., Emeryville. 510-652-4412, <http://www.charleschocolates.com>. Enjoy.

Reach Oakland Tribune food writer Jolene Thym at jthym@angnewspapers.com or 510-353-7008.