

red tricycle™

PINT-SIZED NEWS FOR SAVVY GROWN-UPS

Monday, October 27, 2008

San Francisco

Get Out and Play

It's nearly time to head back to school, but summer's still at its peak in the Bay Area with loads of fun festivals on the horizon. Make the little ones feel like citizens of the world at the Arab Cultural Festival in San Francisco, and the Oakland Chinatown Street Fest . Fans of Tim Burton's Charlie and the Chocolate Factory can watch it on the patio at a real chocolate factory--Charles Chocolates , in Emeryville. In-the-know moms and their chic babies will be getting prepped for fall at the multi-boutique Blue Dot sale at Fort Mason on Saturday and Sunday.

small doses of news in an easy
to skim
format!